Thriving Business in the Justice Courts of Red Jacket

After Pay Day at the Mines.

A Chance for the Voters to Make Their Choice of the Ballot Tomorrow—Other News.

The justice courts have been doing a thriving business since pay day and numerous cases have come up for assault and battery and drunk and disorderly, besides half a dozen noise and disturbance cases. Among those not already chronicled are a drunk and disorderly, noise and disturbance and a couple of others which have not yet been settled.

John Sevelinsky paid $5 and costs for being drunk and disorderly on the street last Wednesday night. He was arrested by Officer Stukel and when brought before the bar of justice this morning pleaded guilty to a violation of the village ordinance and paid the fine without a murmur.

John Sullivan and a friend named Con Sullivan became hilarious about town Tuesday night and finally ran against Nightwatchman Murphy. They were up before Justice Curtis Wednesday and paid $5 and costs each for their little fun.

Dominick Vignetto, proprietor of the saloon in Ford's building on Fifth street, and his accordion player, who were arrested the fore part of the week charged with creating a noise and disturbance, pleaded not guilty and demanded a jury trial. The trial took place Wednesday afternoon when Vignetto was found guilty and Peter Getto, the musician, not guilty. Attorney Kerr represented the people. Vignetto paid $10.65, including a $5 fine.

A row occurred in a saloon on the north end of Fifth street last Sunday night and Toivo Peltonen, Andrew Peltonen, Alex Terma and Adolph Jarjka, were arrested by Marshal Ward for having a hand in it. They will be up before Justice Curtis this evening.

Late last night Henry Wartti was found lying in the middle of the road on Pine street in a state of intoxication. With a good deal of trouble the officer succeeded in getting him to the village jail where he languished until this morning. His case has not yet been disposed of.

Make Your Choice.

It is to be hoped that the readers of the News will not refrain from using the ballot which will be printed in our tomorrow's issue. The ballot will, of course, be entirely secret, as no other name will appear on it, the object of the ballot is to obtain, if possible, some idea of the popular wish as to who should be governor and congressman.

For some reason the caucuses and conventions which lead to the nomination of such officers are not attended, at least in this and the other neighboring townships, by the voters generally, why, except it is through laziness or carelessness cannot be imagined, as they no doubt, as usual, will turn out in force at the caucuses and conventions when the county officials are nominated, cannot well be imagined and in consequence the ring or clique of so-called politicians run things generally to their own satisfaction, but for which, in the absence of any interest in the matter being taken by the voters generally, they certainly cannot be blamed. The use of the ballot will certainly not put our readers to much trouble or expense in returning it to the News office, if, however, they do refrain from showing their personal choice, it will not be through any fault of the Evening News.

The Republicans at Chassel.

That old warhorse in the republican ranks, the Hon. O. W. Robinson, was the first to start the erection of a McKinley and Hobart pole in Houghton county, and last night the republicans of Chassel raised a McKinley pole 100 feet high, with a McKinley and Hobart flag 30 feet long. This goes to show that Mr. Robinson is, whatever some people in the county may say, as good a republican as ever and the republicans, before they get through with the campaign, will find the necessity of keeping in with all factions of their party. The fact that this man leans a little to Pingree, or that man to free silver is not a sufficient reason for driving him out of their ranks; but if they insist upon so doing they will find, before they get through, they will have but a very little party left, for say what they will, Pingree has been, and still is, quite a factor in the politics in this State, and, as such, demands a proper recognition at the hands of the party.

And as to the silver question, they will find there are at present very many people, who, perhaps, not fully understanding the question, lean toward it. The only way to drive it out of them is by that campaign of education which we are promised and which, we trust, will have a beneficial effect upon those now troubled with this silver idea.

Foresters of America Reunion.

The various courts of this county and many from the iron country will hold a grand reunion in Hancock tomorrow, to which the public are cordially invited and a good time is promised to all who do attend.

All members of Court North Star, No. 77, and of Court Lafayette, No. 8111, and also the Companions of the Forest, are requested to meet at their respective halls at 1 o'clock sharp, as the train leaves Red Jacket depot at 1:30. The return train will leave Hancock at 11 o'clock p. m. Fare for the round trip, 50 cents.

By order of
THE COMMITTEE.

Convention Bulletin.

St. Louis, July 24, 2:40 p. m.—The committee report, recommending the limitation of nomination speeches for president and vice-president to five minutes, was adopted. National committee was increased from one to three members for each State and territory. A motion that the national committee elect its own chairman and officers was carried.

Cyclone Davis favors nominating president before vice-president, but favors a southern man for vice-president. California, Indiana and Kansas pledge votes for vice-president from the south. Several delegations are speaking at the same time. Chairman is rapping for order. A roll call of States, to decide whether the president or vice-president be voted for first, is being taken.

The Merry-Go-Round.

It is said that all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy, and the same remark will, we suppose, apply to Jennie and therefore, as people, both old and young, will have amusement, we fail to see what objection can be raised on moral grounds to a merry-go-round more than to any other amusement which attracts young people of the different sex together. There is one thing quite certain, anyone, lady or child, patronizing Mr. Smyth's merry-go-round, which is now stationed at South Lake Linden, is not likely to meet with any rowdyism, as Mr. Smyth conducts his business in a business and respectable manner and runs it under his personal supervision.

Maccabee Picnic.

Calumet Tent, No 218 K. O. T. M., will give a picnic at St. Jean Baptist grove (Tamarack) on Saturday, Aug. 15, 1896.

The committee in charge are leaving nothing undone to insure a pleasant time to everybody who wishes to have a day's enjoyment, and still not go too far from home. The park is in better condition than ever. The gates will be open at 1:30 p. m., and the electric lights will be put in for the evening. The Fifth Regiment Band has been secured for the occasion.

Richards & Pringle's minstrels gave a very creditable performance at the Opera House last evening to a fair-sized audience. It is not often that Red Jacket is visited with an entertainment of this class that is of as high grade as this company and they should have had a larger house. The work of the whole company was uniformly good and the impersonator was away above the average. The contortionist was also first-class, as also were those who played on the various musical instruments.

Entertainment of the Libby Glass Works Attracting Large Crowds.

The Libby Glass blowers are proving a good attraction. The attendance last night was larger than the previous evenings, which goes to show the entertainment is satisfactory. They will continue here until Saturday night, and for the benefit of the ladies and children there will be a special matinee tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m. and every lady and child will receive a handsome present free. Admission 10 cents for ladies and children.

C. Maas, of this city, returned Monday from Red Jacket, Mich., where he has been for six weeks past in his capacity as architect. He did a rushing business in the copper country, drawing plans for three different churches and fourteen residences. He reports business as very flourishing in that locality. It seems to be the only place that is not feeling the hard times.—Menominee Daily Herald.

Mr. Peter Heimlich, of cigar fame, has engaged Mr. George Hoehner as solicitor and collector, and trusts that his various patrons will kindly accord to Mr. Hoehner, who is well known as a very genial gentleman, the liberal treatment with which they have hitherto given to Mr. Heimlich in his personal calls. Mr. Heimlich has been induced to take this step so that he may give more of his personal attention to the manufacturing of the cigars, and so keep them up to the high rank they have now attained in the market.

The firemen's dance occurs this evening at the Opera House and promises to be largely attended, as a large number of tickets have been sold. The ideal orchestra will furnish music and every possible arrangement that could be made for the accommodation of those who attend has been made. An enjoyable party is sure to be the result.

Bice ball enthusiasts will have an opportunity to witness a good game at the park tomorrow afternoon, when Bonwick and Solly, the old battery, supported by a first-class field, will meet the Houghton team. Healy and Haas will hold up the honors as Houghton's battery. The game commences at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Clyde Mackenzie left on the noon train for Hancock where she will take the boat to Buffalo and from thence proceed to New York, from which place she will sail on the 1st of August for Liverpool on a visit to her old home in Scotland. Her husband accompanied her as far as Marquette.

Contractor Bray has almost completed his work on the Taylor House for the Anderson estate. The hotel has been materially improved in many respects and Miss Host Taylor is now better able to take care of his business than ever.

Meat Market For Sale.

Owing to ill health I am anxious to dispose of my business with all utensils, wagons, horses, etc., complete as a running concern. For further particulars apply to Charles Salas, Pine street.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dean, of Grand Rapids, were visitors about the different mines here Wednesday and yesterday and also took in the mills at Lake Linden yesterday, leaving on this morning's train for home.

A great deal of interest is being manifested by local people in the B. chor-Benedict base ball game at Houghton. A rate of one fare for the round trip has been secured for those who wish to attend from here.

Our stock of sash, doors and mouldings is the best in the market. We carry the largest stock of interior finish in the copper country.

Capt. E. S. Grierson, of Co. D, Fifth Regiment, M. N. G., has recommended the appointment of Privates Richard Pascoe and Frank L. Kohlhaas to be corporals, and Corporal Joseph Kemp to be a sergeant. The appointments will take effect before encampment.

Messrs. John L. Harris and Ed Johnson, of the Quincy, and George Nichols, John Rahl and J. H. Hick, of Hancock, were out on their bicycles last evening. They were down looking over the track in the athletic park.

The choir of the Swedish M. E. church, assisted by the best local talent, will give a grand concert at the Red Jacket church tomorrow evening, commencing at 7:30. Everybody invited.

The team attached to the Keweenaw stage started from the Mineral Range depot this noon and indulged in a runaway, not stopping until they had reached Tamarack.

Contractor N. Bray commenced work yesterday on a new residence for Ernest Tonquist just below Bray's planing mill, in Laurium. It will be a commodious two-story dwelling.

Mr. R. L. Fee, the Banner cigar man, is up on his regular trip and called on Red Jacket customers yesterday. Mr. Fee is accompanied on this trip by his wife.

President Agassiz and Consulting Engineer Levitt, of the Calumet and Hecla mining company, who have been here for the past few days, left at noon for Boston.

Remarked the other day that in all his travels he never found a beer that could equal the Superior Stock of the Bessell Brewing Co. These "drummers" know a good thing when they see it. Do you use it?

Mr. John Wester and family, of Lake Linden, made a visit to the CHIF and spent a very pleasant day upon the bluff, where he was foreman for several years.

In addition to our lumber business we carry a full line of lime, brick, cement and plaster of paris.
